Look for these signs of great gardens and friendly people.

Ride the Garden Walk on our FREE shuttle buses.

Follow the orange dashed line on the map for our five continuous loops. Hop-on, hop-off at shuttle stops. There is no charge for the shuttle thanks to BlueCross BlueShield of WNY. New! Explore Buffalo tour guides will be on all five shuttles, pointing out areas of significant history and points of architectural interest for visitors. Find out more about Explore Buffalo by visiting www.ExploreBuffalo.org.

From Garden Walk’s beginning, donations have kept the event free and open to the public. Donations also fund the Marvin Lunefeld Beautification Grants for block clubs and community groups. You can be a part of beautifying Buffalo, too! Please fill out the coupon found in this map or visit GardenWalkBuffalo.com.

Garden Walk gives back!

The Marvin Lunenfeld Beautification Grants, named for Garden Walk Buffalo’s founder, have helped fund more than 100 beautification projects for nearly $100,000 since 2005. Your donations provide funding for these 2017 beautification projects within the area of Garden Walk Buffalo.

Japanese Garden of Buffalo at the Buffalo History Museum

Docents will be on hand to show off this genteel horticultural gesture of friendship between Buffalo and its sister city, Kanazawa, Japan. The serene garden is within Delaware Park and is maintained by the Buffalo Olmsted Parks Conservancy. This garden gem features stone lanterns, small islands, grasses, red maples, and 1,000 Japanese Iris – planted as a result of a Garden Walk Buffalo Marvin Lunenfeld Beautification grant. It is home to The Annual Buffalo Cherry Blossom Festival in early May. It is located behind The Buffalo History Museum, on Mirror Lake, at 1 Museum Court (Elmwood Avenue and Nottingham Terrace corner). Parking is available in the Museum’s ample lot. See our Facebook page: Friends of the Japanese Garden of Buffalo for more information.

Welcome GWA | The Association of Garden Communicators

The GWA 2017 annual conference will be held in Buffalo on August 4-7, the week after Garden Walk Buffalo. The conference attracts 300-400 garden journalists, columnists, bloggers, photographers, book authors, educators, professional speakers, historians, landscapers, nursery professionals, garden center professionals, advertising and PR pros, florists and more. Local Area Coordinator Sally Cunningham, scores of volunteers, and Visit Buffalo Niagara are making this event with an economic impact of $1.2 million, action-packed and memorable. For more, visit GardenWalk.org.
